Report on Entrepreneurship Development Programme

Date: 4 February 2025 – 15 February 2025

Organized by DUY Faculty: Mr. Mukul Bedi and Mrs. Kiran Joshi

Total Students Registered: 91

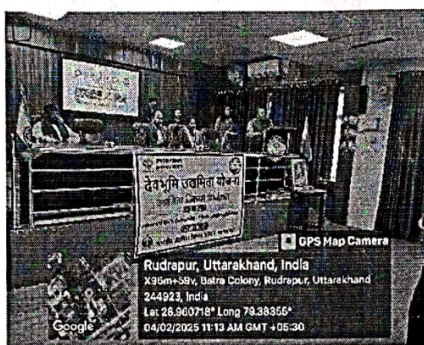

Total Students Attended: 51

Student selected : 45

Day 1: Introduction and Motivation

The programme commenced at 11:00 am under the guidance of Nodal Officer Dr. Garima Jaiswal. Prof. Sarvajeet Yadav, representing the principal, emphasized the importance of the Entrepreneurship Development Programme (EDP). Coordinator Mr. Bharat Singh inspired the audience with motivational insights.

Mr. Mukul Bedi explained the EDP concept, while IPR Coordinator Mr. Manoj Pandey highlighted the differences between startups and entrepreneurship, along with intellectual property rights (IPR). COE Incharge Dr. Shalabh Gupta discussed food processing. During the second session, participants introduced themselves, shared their strengths and weaknesses, and presented initial business ideas.

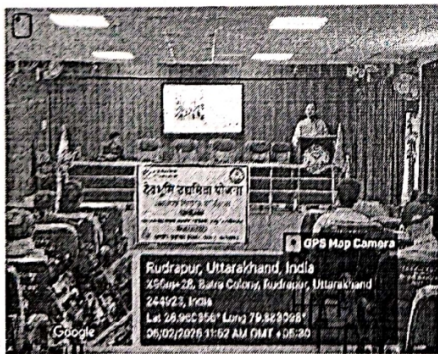

Day 2: Entrepreneurial Skills and Business Planning

Mr. Mukul Bedi started the day with a session on skill development and confidence-building. He discussed:

- How to become an entrepreneur
- Steps to develop a business plan
- Various sectors for entrepreneurship

He emphasized the power of vision, citing Bill Gates as an example. In the second session, Mrs. Kiran Joshi introduced business opportunity identification and selection. She illustrated entrepreneurial differences with a case study on the Hazam Zecra cocktail industry. Participants created logos and analyzed each other's strengths and weaknesses.

Day 3: Innovation, Startups, and Entrepreneurship

Mrs. Kiran Joshi opened the session by discussing the impact of AI technology and the ASK (Attitude, Skill, Knowledge) theory through an engaging activity. Using Thomas Edison's story, she explained how failure is the first step to success. Participants explored problem-solving, belief systems, organizational structures, and goal setting. She concluded with a case study on Lizzat Papad.

IT expert Mr. Aman Agarwal discussed coding, AI advancements, and digital marketing tools, such as:

1. Suno AI
2. Canva.com
3. Gravity Write
4. Ideogram
5. Eleven Labs

Mrs. Kiran Joshi then led a session on values, attitudes, interests, beliefs, and Gestalt Theory.

Day 5: Product Design and Marketing

Mrs. Sonia Joshi discussed product design, using Apple and Samsung as examples. She explained design functions with a tea cup example and demonstrated product evolution using cars. She also highlighted Giani's Ice Cream's significance in product design. Mrs. Kiran Joshi shared a case study on Kabadiwala and concluded with marketing fundamentals.

Day 6: Horticulture and the Economy

Dr. Shalabh Gupta discussed horticulture, the Green Revolution, and horticulture therapy. Mr. V.S. Khan explained factors of production (land, labor, entrepreneur, capital) and types of market structures (monopoly, monopolistic, perfect, oligopoly). He also discussed the New Economic Policy (liberalization, globalization, privatization). Dr. Sunil Kumar Maurya concluded with insights on market surveys.

Day 7: Traditional Knowledge and MSMEs

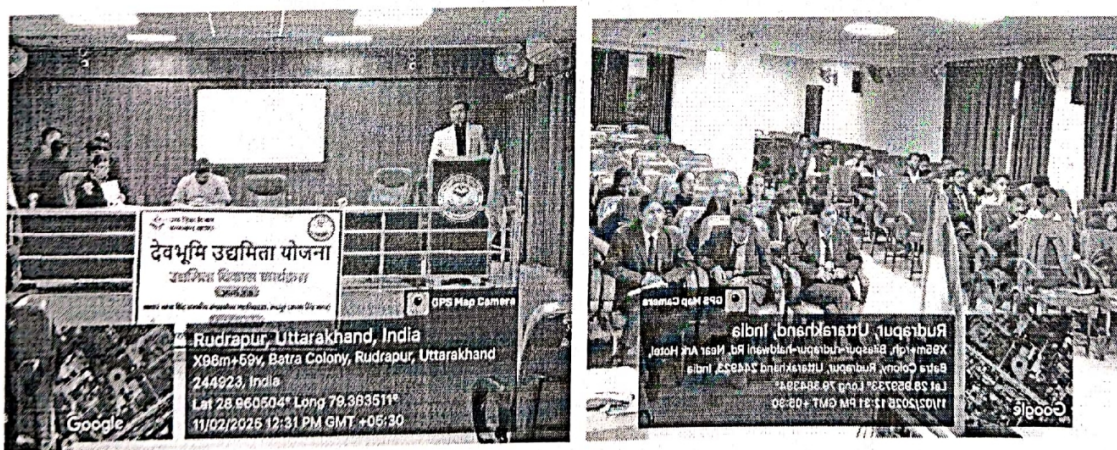

Mr. Manoj Pandey discussed traditional knowledge, wisdom management, and the effects of liberalization, privatization, and globalization. He concluded with an overview of patents, copyrights, and trademarks. Union Bank Chief Manager Mr. Tribhuvn Singh explained India's GDP composition and MSMEs, highlighting:

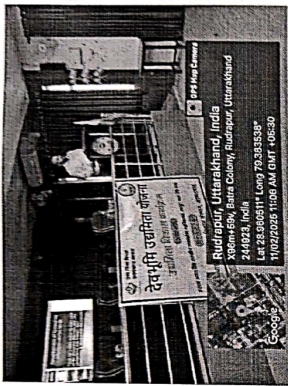

1. Government initiatives
2. MSME challenges and opportunities
3. MSME financing options

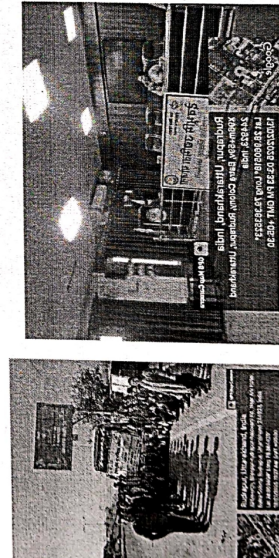

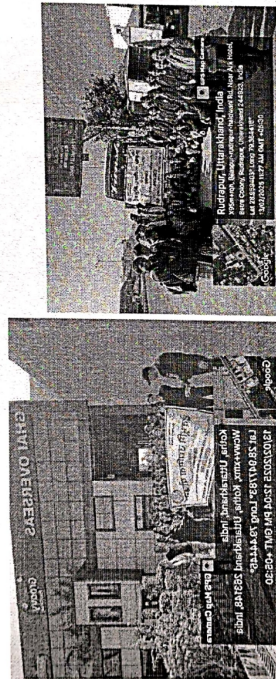

Day 8: Entrepreneurial Plan Formulation

Dr. Sanjeev Saxena discussed entrepreneurial plan formulation, innovative entrepreneurship, and qualities of entrepreneurs. He also covered prospective business areas and patenting. Mr. Rohit Rawat from DIC explained government schemes, business loans, and startup subsidies.

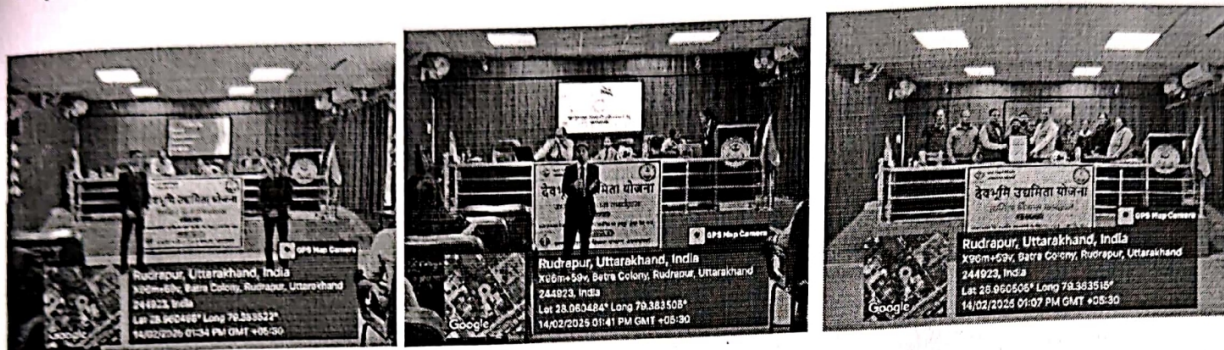

Day 9 & 10: Industrial Visit and Practical Sessions
 Participants visited GHAI Overseas, where they observed the production of soft drinks (lychee, mango, orange, guava). They learned about programming logic control (PLC), cold storage, and warehouse management.
 Mrs. Geeta Devi, a jute business entrepreneur, taught participants how to make jute bags. Mr. Prateek Kaushik, a cement business owner, stressed the importance of time management.

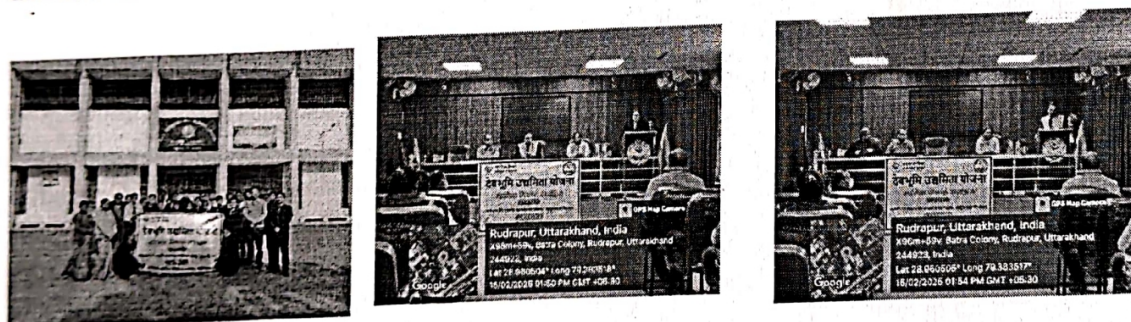

Day 11: Licensing and Business Registration

Mrs. Kiran Joshi discussed the licensing process and facilitated startup idea presentations. Mr. Mukul Bedi concluded the programme with a session on Detailed Project Reports (DPR) and how to register under the Udyamita Yojna.

Day 12: Valedictory ceremony

On Day 11, the final day of the EDP program, the session was hosted by Iram Salmani, who welcomed all the participants. During the valedictory ceremony, Dr. Garima Jaiswal presented a brief report on the 12-days EDP program. Following this, Mr. Rajesh Ubhaan, the Principal, appreciated the efforts of everyone involved and motivated the students to pursue entrepreneurship. Mr. Mukul Bedi then presented appreciation trophies to the students who won the logo competition and the DUY nodal. Finally, Dr. Salabh Gupta delivered a vote of thanks to all the DUY teams, nodal officers, committee members, participants, and others.

Conclusion

The Entrepreneurship Development Programme provided a comprehensive understanding of entrepreneurship, skill development, business planning, and marketing strategies. The participants left equipped with the tools and motivation to explore entrepreneurial ventures.
